OPENJOBMETIS TAKES PART IN THE STAR CONFERENCE IN LONDON ON 9 OCTOBER

Milan, 5 October 2017 – Openjobmetis S.p.A. (Borsa Italiana: OJM), one of the leading Employment Agencies, listed on the STAR segment of the Stock Market, will take part in the STAR Conference organised by Borsa Italiana on 9 and 10 October at the London Stock Exchange.

An event dedicated to companies in the STAR segment, where the top management of the companies will meet a wide range of foreign institutional investors to tell about business innovations and future growth plans during one-to-one meetings and group meetings.

On the first day, the Managing Director Rosario Rasizza and the CFO Alessandro Esposti will present to more than 20 foreign institutional investors the economic and financial performances achieved in the first half of 2017, showing double digit increases in Total revenues (+34%), a more than doubled profit for the period and a significant decrease in the net financial position, plus the sector's macro view and the prospects for development of Openjobmetis over the next few years.

Rosario Rasizza, Managing Director of Openjobmetis, commented as follows: “We are present at the STAR Conference for the fourth time after the 2015 listing, with many new features compared to the last time. In fact, today Openjobmetis is a real public company, with a free float of more than 68%, about 50% of which is represented by foreign institutional investors. This result was also achieved thanks to the visibility gained during the meetings with foreign investors in the institutional setting of the Milan and London markets”.
